

My name is Patrick. A. Moshing. I study at mwenge catholic university in ordinary diploma in business administration. Tha following is to describe my course program which I take at Mwenge,

This program or course in business administration is designed to help me and other students with knowledge and practical skills in managing business organizations effectively.

Also the aim of this course is to prepare me and other students for leadership roles by developing their decision-making problem solving, communication skills, also this course it give us opportunity in practical project and theoretical in order to get experience in business.

At Mwenge the programs that we cover is Marketing principles, Accounting fundamental, Information and communication technology, Busines communication skills ect.

In conclusion business Administration program it prepare me with good knowledge and practical skills for managing business in organizations.